New Landing.

The new landing place recently built on the river in King George county has been completed and is being used by the river line steamers as a landing place. The new wharf is located not far from where Stiff's wharf formerly stood, and will be of great advantage to the business men in the upper part of King George. The wharf is now known as Smith's after its owner, but it is understood it will be known as Cottage wharf. Smith's is the only wharf on the river between Gunston and Stuart's wharves, a distance of about thirty miles.

Mr. Robert Crane, owner of the wharf at Lower Cedar Point, has recently rebuilt and greatly enlarged and improved the wharf and has renamed it "Morgan-town." This pier has had a number of names in recent years, having been known as Lower Cedar Point and later as Dill's.

Colored Man Beaten.

Early risers in the southeastern portion of the city had their attention attracted this morning to a considerable quantity of blood on the northwest corner of Wilkes and Royal streets. It was first reported that an attempt had been made to hold up a white man last night and that the latter had severely beaten his assailant. Later it was ascertained that a colored man named William Washington had emerged second best in a fight. It seems that while a gentleman living in the neighborhood was on his way home last night he was assaulted by Washington, who was drunk, and the white man was forced to render the darker horse de combat. Washington lives on the square where the difficulty occurred.

Baseball.

The baseball game for the championship honors will be played at 5 o'clock today on the fair ground. Manager Birrell, of the Alexandria Athletic Club, has picked out the same team that was to have played the Leesburg Club last Saturday. The line up will be as follows: Purcell, p; Kraft, c; Bright, 1st b; Benzel, 2nd b; Wheatley, 3rd b; Dougherty, of Washington, s; Gray c; Bright, r; Fletcher, of Washington, 1 f.

Unlicensed Dogs.

The police are on the search for persons who are harboring dogs without having licenses for the same. Officer Allen brought Mary Richards, colored, before Justice Caton this morning charged with keeping seven unlicensed curs. She was fined $2. He also arraigned Hattie Douglass upon the charge of keeping one unlicensed canine. It was shown that the woman had been paying taxes on her dog in times past and was saving money to procure this year's license. She was dismissed upon promising to take out a license at once. It is believed that a large percentage of dogs running about the city are owned by white and colored people who are defying the law.

Committee Meeting.

The democratic city committee will meet at the Hotel Fleischmann tonight at 8 o'clock in joint session with the democratic committee of Alexandria county, for the purpose of arranging to hold a legislative primary and to consider other matters relating to the primary to be held on August 23 for United States Senator and State officers.

The Market.

There was another large supply of country produce in market this morning. Prices in the main had undergone no decided change, except for tomatoes, which were somewhat firmer. Blackberries are disappearing, while peaches, apples, cantaloupes, &c., are becoming more plentiful.

Charged with Housebreaking.
Constable Cornell, of Alexandria county, yesterday arrested Angelo Lamento, an Italian, who is charged with housebreaking in the county. He was placed in the station house in this city until this morning when he was conducted to the county.

Personal.

Mrs. A. A. Davis and daughter, Miss Bessie, of Alexandria, are the guests of Miss Lena Cooper while Miss Bessie is having her eyes treated at the hospital. Miss Myrtle Goods has returned to Alexandria, after a visit with Miss Ethel Shacklett.—[Strasburg News.]

Misses Myrtle and Lucy Graves have returned from Atlantic City.

Miss Celeste Milburn, who has been quite sick with typhoid fever, is thought to be considerably better.

Messrs. Benj. McBurney, Edgar Warfield, jr., H. B. and Randall Caton will leave this evening for Atlantic City and from there will go to Coney Island.

During Justice Caton's absence from the city, Justice Pelton will preside at the Police Court.

Mr. Charles Dietrich's family, of Washington, formerly of this city, has gone to spend the summer at Orange, Va.

Mr. James Beach is seriously ill at his home on south Fairfax street.

Depew, son of Mr. Thomas Chaucney, who has been suffering from appendicitis, is improving.

It is understood that Mr. Gales Holcombe, former City Engineer of Alexandria, who for some time past has been in the government engineering service in the Philippines, has been transferred to Panama with a considerably increased salary.

Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's Church, will leave on Monday to spend his vacation with his family at Deer Park, Md. During his absence his pulpit will be filled by Rev. L. R. Combs, of Lancaster.

Miss Mary Starnell left this morning to visit relatives in Richmond.

Mrs. John A. Peck and children, of Roanoke, who have been visiting Mrs. Peck's mother, Mrs. M. E. Gilmore, have gone to Blacksburg to spend the remainder of the summer.

Mr. Rudolph Norris has gone to Colonial Beach to spend his ten days' vacation.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Robert Jackson, colored, arrested by Officers Lyles and Allen charged with stealing money from Mrs. Ella Brown, was fined $5.

A white man, arrested by Officer Lyles for drunkenness, was dismissed with an admonition.

John Freeman, colored, arrested by Officers Allen and Beach charged with drunkenness, was dismissed.

William Talford, colored, arrested by Officers Beach and Allen charged with stealing a graphophone from Julia Whitfield, colored, had his case continued until Monday.

Mary Richards, colored, arrested by Officer Allen charged with keeping dogs without a license, was fined $2.

Hattie Douglass, colored, arrested by the same officer on a similar charge, was dismissed.

W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Mary Newton, a national organizer of the W. C. T. U., will lecture Monday night in the parlors of the Children's Home at 7:30 o'clock. The public are cordially invited to attend this meeting. Mrs. Newton is a consecrated worker, and has accomplished much good in Virginia and in other States where she has worked.

There will be a called meeting of the Allison W. C. T. U. Monday night at 8:30 o'clock in the parlors of the Children's Home, a full attendance is desired as business of great importance is to be brought before the meeting.

State Bar Association.

The Virginia State Bar Association will hold its annual meeting at Old Point on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, August 8, 9 and 10. The Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company will make a special rate of a fare and third ($4.00) for the round trip for members of the association, the tickets to be on sale from August 4 to 8 inclusive, good till August 15. The railroads in the State will charge one fare for the round trip plus 25 cents.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live from One Hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey, of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five minutes I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The mercury at 3 o'clock this evening registered 84°.

The weather at times today has been cloudy and threatening. The wind has been from the east.

The schooner C. W. Keath, which was loaded with lumber by H. K. Field & Co., has sailed for Coan river.

In the Corporation Court today a final decree was entered in the case of Cordelia A. Gilham vs. J. T. L. Preston et al.

The remains of Mrs. Martha M. Schaaf, whose death occurred Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. Jesse Cadle, in Washington, were brought here today for interment.

Benjamin Smith, guard from the Petersburg Asylum, passed through this city this morning with J. H. Hamilton, colored, of Manassas, in charge. The latter was recently pronounced a lunatic.

We have received an invitation to attend the Berryville Horse Show to be held on August 23 and 24. The association under which the show will be held is making all efforts to insure its success.

Mr. Wm. H. Sutton having been awarded the contract, has had the foundation laid and commenced the erection of a two and a-half story mansard frame residence for Mr. Jas. T. Lawler, near the northwest corner of Wilkes and Washington streets.

Ida Manni, the eighteen-months-old child of Benedict Manni, of 451 New Jersey avenue southeast Washington, was run over and instantly killed by a car of the Anacostia and Potomac River Railroad at New Jersey avenue and E street southeast about 5:30 o'clock last night.

Mr. Andrew Jackson Silling, a former well-known citizen of Manassas, died at San Rafael, California, Wednesday night, where he had resided for the past two and a half years. He was a native of Augusta county, and was 69 years of age. Several years ago he lived with his family in this city.

Horses advertised for sale today were offered by Mr. S. H. Lunt, but no sales were effected and the statement was made that horses hereafter under a limited price would not be cried by him. This is the entering wedge of the stoppage of a horse bazaar in front of the market building.

Free Crab Feast tonight at Ben's House, 114 north Fairfax street. Owen McGee, proprietor.

Free Crab Feast at Tontine Hotel, Cameron street, tonight. C. H. Tier, manager. Soft Crabs and Deviled Crabs fresh every day. C. H. Zimmerman, Market Place, to the sea.

Jer-me Attacks Tammany.

Aroused by what he terms the unwarrantable removal of W. M. Fuller from the Chief Clerkship of the Court of Special Sessions in New York to make room for former Alderman C. W. Cullen, whose appointment C. F. Murphy has ordered, District Attorney Jerome yesterday made a bitter attack upon Murphy, Tammany Hall and everything about Tammany generally. It appears from this talk that Tammany Hall has given him to understand that he cannot expect the support of the organization next fall, and that he is out to make a strong fight. Mayor McClellan, he declared, was not doing his best in the appointing of political leaders, like Maurice Featherston as Dock Commissioner, of Thomas McEvoy as Assistant Police Commissioner, and of John T. Oakley as Water Commissioner. All these men are prominent in the Tammany organization.

Killed by the Mayor.

B. A. Gallagher was shot and killed by E. Hursey, postmaster and Mayor of Abbeville, Ala., at that place yesterday. Gallagher and Hursey had been at odds for some time. The exact nature of the first trouble could not be learned, but about a month ago Gallagher was arrested and fined by Hursey. He became very much offended and refused to pay the fine assessed against him. Gallagher went downtown with a pistol buckled on and a shotgun in his hand. He was just across the street from Hursey's place of business and had stepped on a porch of Dr. Bank's drug store. Hursey, it is alleged, fired on Gallagher without warning. Hursey fired from inside his store and the charge of buckshot entered Gallagher's abdomen and lodged in his back.

The Market.
